

purchaser concerns, and in combination with community pressure, committed to participation.

sections. One hospital, for example, discovered that its failed induction rate was the primary contributing factor to their high NTSV rate.

Departments committed to reviewing and publishing department and physician-level MDC d11 1 85ld-3(wm)3ctioarbas(b)3()-4(d)10(ar)3(t)9tiomactIt ateredal(D)6(C)JTJETBT1 0 0 1 72 0 9647.86 Tmra3(uc3(h6(le

Results

Three hospitals in Los Angeles County and Orange County as well as two commercial health plans, Aetna and Blue Shield, launched the intervention in the first and second quarters of 2014. As of May 2015, four additional hospitals with a health system in San Diego confirmed participation and implementation is underway.

